Dear Friend R. V. Robinson

Thank you for the 2 subscribers
- I have handed their names & the $3. to the publisher -

as to Mrs. Hatch, I know him well - about for Methodism - & Ministry & Organization - <sup>he</sup> might make an efficient lecturer. I could not recommend him, for these times, as an Anti-Slavery agent -

I will tell you my requirements in an agent - after a decent share of lab our I would require a magnanimity of heart that can fellowship anybody as an abolitionist, who is one - without reference to their "extraneous" opinions - who is not afraid to give anti-slavery the precedence of every thing that conflicts with it.

I don't know of a man headstrong, not engaged - whom I could recommend. - We must trust that the people do their own agency - & sustain the unflinching just. Stir up the people to local meetings in the district school houses - We have to run, for want of means - We have two agents, who live on nothing.

In great haste sincerely Yours

W D Rogers
